We have received copies of the Illustrated Weekly, published at Topeka, and it is a credit to the proprietors as well as to the state. It is similar in form and matter to Judge and Puck, and its cartoons are the equal of either of these publications. It teems with bright, witty sayings, and its illustrations are fresh, original and amusing. Laughing is recommended by physicians as an aid to digestion. One copy of the Illustrated Weekly is certainly a cheap but highly valuable medicine.

Those who were fortunate enough to be present at the open meeting of Lewis Post last Tuesday evening were treated to a very interesting program of songs, recitations and anecdotes of a very life. A distressing accident occurred to Mr. Louis Hatfield, a brakeman on the Rock Island, on last Friday while at Greensburg. In attempting to climb to the top of a car, he lost his hold, and by great exertion threw himself backwards from between the cars, alighting on his head and shoulders. It was at night, and he lay stunned for a few moments, but recovering somewhat, he crawled to the depot, feeling his way along the track, as the fall had blinded him. He made known his condition and was cared for until Monday when he was brought to this city, where he has been doing well under the care of Dr. Milto.

County Attorney Madison was summoned to Bucklin on Friday last by a telegram to the effect that a burglary had been committed and his services as prosecutor were needed. However, upon arrival, it proved to be a case of rape. The facts, as developed, are that one Jack Henderson, a married man with two children, and Ida May Welkin, aged 14 years, the daughter of a neighbor, were in May last, engaged in planting corn, Henderson doing the driving and the girl dropping. After work they were compelled to pass through a draw which secluded them from sight, and here Henderson accomplished his purpose. The preliminary trial occurred Wednesday before Justice Sillit, M. W. Sutton and a Greenway attorney appearing for the defense, while the county attorney was also assisted by a Greenway legal light Henderson was bound over in the sum of $900 to await the action of the district court.

THE COLLEGE CLOSED.

TO THE PUBLIC:

Owing to the fact that both the president of the College of Western Kansas, at Dodge City, the Rev. J. M. Wright, D. D., and Prof. B. F. Powell, have received and accepted calls to other fields in distinctively ministerial labor, and awaiting still the consummation of the contract by which the College becomes possessed of the guaranteed property and funds to operate with, the College will be adjourned from and after the 27th of November, until further notice is given, which is it hoped will be at no distant day in the future. In the meantime the trustees will set about as soon as possible adjusting matters looking to a permanent resumption of the work, and all other friends of the enterprise and interested parties are urged to lend their aid and encouragement to putting the institution on good footing.

By order of trustees,

TO THE PUBLIC.

A little over three years ago I came among you to labor in building up one of your enterprises, and ever have applied myself faithfully to that end. That no more has been done, I feel that you exonerate me from responsibility. The times have been against us. I have sacrificed much, and have greatly desired to see this enterprise a success; and I yet have faith in it, and trust that the hindrances will soon be removed, and the College Trustees be able to carry forward their work. You should stand by them and see to it that they at once have the property and funds as promised. I dislike much to close my labors among you; but in justice to myself and family I am compelled to do so, on account of the long continued delay in the transfer to the Trustees of the property and operating funds as per contract. I trust that what I have done is appreciated, and that my friends will stand by me in a struggle to relieve myself of serious embarrassment, and that those to whom I have been compelled to become indebted will bear with me, and I assure them that I shall all be paid. I feel truly that I shall be all paid. I feel truly that I shall be all paid.

Mr. Frank Huffman, a young man of Burlington Ohio, states that he had been under the care of two prominent physicians, and used their treatment until he was not able to get around. They pronounced his case to be Consumption and incurable. He was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, and at that time was not able to walk across the street without resting. He found, before he had used half of a dollar bottle, that he was much better; he continued to use it and is to-day enjoying good health. If you have any throat, lung, or chest trouble try it. We guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free at City Drug Store.

RESOLUTION.

At a meeting of the students of the College, in the chapel, on the morning of the 26th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

We, the students of the College of Western Kansas, learning with deep regret of existing circumstances which make the removal of Prof. B. F. Powell to another field of labor a necessity, be it

Resolved, that we do hereby extend to Prof. B. F. Powell our sincere thanks for his untiring labor in our behalf, and in the behalf of this institution.

Secondly, While it is with deepest regret we learn that circumstances do make it a necessity for him to give up his work in this College, yet we rejoice in the hope that in his new field of labor his services will be remunerated in proportion to their worth.

Thirdly, That we assure Prof. Powell that, in leaving us, he takes with him the confidence and respect of the entire school.

A GRAND AFFAIR.

The masque ball at McCarty's opera house Thursday evening, was, probably, the most successful of the kind ever given in this city. There was a tremendous jam in the building, notwithstanding its immense size, and the big, good natured crowd ebbed and pushed its way in until it resembled sardines in a box. The scene on the floor, enlivened by the bright, gay costumes of the masquers, presented an animating spectacle. As strains of music floated upon the air, the masquers began the promenade. At 9 o'clock seventy-five couples, enmasque, formed for the grand march, and the dance had opened. Below is given a partial list of those representing characters, and it is impossible to obtain them all, and descriptions of many unique, as well as beautiful costumes are omitted because the wearers' names could not be obtained:

Louie Bader, Marquis of Queensbury. John Shaw, Marquis of Gooseberry. Harry Waters, Monk. Lon Juneau, Clown. Ed Godfrey, Clown. Henry Drinkwater, Clown. Monte Gluck, Colored Society Dude. Geo. Potter, Jockey. W. H. Sherer, Lord Fauntleroy. Tom Tate, Clown. Ben Oldham, Alderman. Ed Glassford, French Cook. Phil Fadel, French Cook. Will Baker, Carson Baker, Georgia Minstrels. Dick Stubbs, Jockey. Frank Shanks, Clown. Harry Walters, Clown. Charlie Madden, Turk. Al Warren, Spring Blossom. Ed Sims, The Masher. W. E. Teare, Wm. Penn. Geo. Grobety, Private Soldier. Chas. Sampson, 1st Sergeant. Geo. Todd, Private Soldier. Ed Martin, Card Sharp. Dr. Crumblin, Marks, the Lawyer. Walter Adams, Jockey. John Williams, Three Jolly Railroad. Wm. Williams, Jockey. Caesar Wollman, Society Man. Tom Bell, Uncle Sam. Grant Pettyjohn, Bareback Rider. Charlie Wright, Jockey. Mike Kelly, Jockey. Jim Reilly, Colored Society Belle. Andy Faulkner, Uncle Sam. John Collier, Fireman. Lou Strangan, Clown. Paul Evans, Chambermaid. Wm. Landers, Priest. John Stewart, Cowboy. C. O. D. Ranch. Sam Stubbs, Pretzel Man. Geo. Stewart, Winnerwart Man. Al Mootz, Lager Beer. Harry Durand, Pappoose. D. Milton, Indian Messiah. R. D. Clamptt, Domino. Geo. Conrad, Clown. Mrs. Geo. Conrad, Goddess of Liberty. Miss Frank Peillon, Jockey. Mrs. Walter Adams, Jockey. Mrs. W. S. Greer, Flower Girl. Miss Laura Hudson, Fancy Dress. Mrs. Ed Glassford, School Girl. Miss Annie Sughrue, Jockey. Mrs. Richard Stubbs, Jockey. Mrs. Waters, Snow Sprite. Mrs. Will Bennett, Snow Sprite. Miss Lillie Gyles, Court Lady. Mrs. Bartlett, Lady in White. Miss Ida Jackson, Court Lady. Miss Clyde Boyd, School Girl. Miss Israel, Grandmother. Miss Myrtle Tarbox, Mikado Character. Miss Tarbox, Mikado Character. Miss Bonnie Cobb, Fancy Costume. Mrs. Pope, Night. Mrs. Mollie Reilly, Fancy Costume. Miss Annie Gibson, School Girl. Miss Mary Shaw, Fancy Dress. Miss Lizzie Reilly, Night. Miss Katie Sughrue, Fancy Dress. Mrs. Cora Marsh, Flirt. Miss Clara Bell, Flirt. Miss She'don, Phenix Club. Miss Evelyn Baird, School Girl. Miss Lucy Baird, School Girl. Miss Midge Wright, Pappoose. Miss Annie Lynch, Lady of the Lake. Miss Rowley, Goddess of Liberty. Miss Annie Parish, Goddess of War. Mrs. Chas. Wright, Goddess of Night. Miss Annie Ryan, Fancy Dress. Mrs. Keck, Snow Sprite. Many other characters were cleverly impersonated.

Mr. Ed Stubbs, who had the management of the affair, deserves the praise of everybody for the faultless manner in which the ball passed off. Mr. Stubbs will give dances at the rink every Thursday evening, and as his name is synonymous with success, in all terpsichorean affairs, the announcement will be welcomed by all. Supper was partaken of at the room two doors south of the rink where the Ladies' Aid Society administered to the wants of those desiring refreshments.
